

In partnership with
Huntington PTA for AIE

Present
#1 New York Time Bestselling Author

JODI PICOULT

Speaking & Signing her new novel

The Storyteller

SATURDAY, MARCH 2nd, 7 p.m.

In the Auditorium at Huntington High School
Oakwood & McKay Roads

Tickets are required to attend this event.

If you are a student or staff member in the Huntington School District, seat tickets are available for $5 in the Music Office of Huntington High School.

631-673-2053. ($5.00 tickets DO NOT include a copy of the new book.)

If you are NOT a student or staff member in the Huntington District, tickets are available through Book Revue, 631-271-1442, 313 New York Avenue, Huntington. Tickets are $28.00 plus tax and include a copy of Jodi's new book. $5 seat tickets are also available through Book Revue for people who do not want to purchase the book.

All $5 seat tickets may be redeemed for $5 off the price of any of Jodi's books on the night of the event.

For more information on The Storyteller, see back

The Storyteller* raises thought-provoking questions:

1. Can someone who's committed truly heinous acts ever atone with subsequent good behavior?
2. Should you offer forgiveness to someone if you aren't the party who was wronged?

Some stories live forever . . .

Sage Singer is a baker. She works through the night, preparing the day's breads and pastries, trying to escape a reality of loneliness, bad memories, and the shadow of her mother's death. When Josef Weber, an elderly man in Sage's grief support group, begins stopping by the bakery, they strike up an unlikely friendship. Despite their differences, they see in each other the hidden scars that others can't, and they become companions.

Everything changes on the day that Josef confesses a long-buried and shameful secret—one that nobody else in town would ever suspect—and asks Sage for an extraordinary favor. If she says yes, she faces not only moral repercussions, but potentially legal ones as well. With her own identity suddenly challenged, and the integrity of the closest friend she's ever had clouded, Sage begins to question the assumptions and expectations she's made about her life and her family. When does a moral choice become a moral imperative? And where does one draw the line between punishment and justice, forgiveness and mercy?

In this searingly honest novel, Jodi Picoult gracefully explores the lengths we will go in order to protect our families and to keep the past from dictating the future.

To see more about the event visit www.bookrevue.com/jodipicoult2013.html

To see more about Jodi's new novel, The Storyteller, visit her website www.jodipicoult.com