

If you are a victim of the hurricane disaster...

Suffolk County is here to help!

Do you need help with food, clothing, shelter or any losses due to the devastation caused by Hurricane Sandy?

In an effort to coordinate easy access to a variety of federal and local benefits and services, County Executive Steve Bellone has established the following emergency sites where those who have been affected by the storm may find the federal, state and county help they need. Please go to any of these sites between the hours of 9am and 8pm and register with FEMA to determine which services may be available to you and your family.
