

Huntington SEPTA
(Special Education Parent- Teacher Association)

Coffee Talk

Thursday – January 5, 2012
10:00 a.m.

Huntington Public Library
(Main Street location)

SEPTA provides information, advice and encouragement to parents going through the special education process with their child. Come to learn, share, express concerns or ask questions. We look forward to seeing you and discussing your ideas and suggestions.

“Knowledge is Power”
Through collaboration and education we become effective advocates for our children.
