

Huntington SEPTA together with Northport/East Northport SEPTA

Present A Unique Film Festival

at the Cinema Arts Centre
423 Park Avenue, Huntington

Thursday, October 16th at 7:15pm

Come and enjoy an eclectic mix of intelligent and artistic short films devoted to the topic of disabilities.

Afterwards, join us in the Sky Room for refreshments.

Admission is FREE. Seating is limited.
Please RSVP no later than Tuesday, October 14th to Nancy Levine at 547-0140

Contact Huntington SEPTA for any additional information via email: huntsepta@hotmail.com

Films:

Hands Away People often express joy through movements. The clip does not only represent the visualization of the song Hands Away but is at the same time a study of the way young people with various handicaps dance • Including Samuel Including Samuel examines the educational and social inclusion of youth with disabilities as a civil rights issue. • Father's Voices Four fathers of young children with a disability provide a glimpse into their lives and emotions • Look, I'm In College The story of what happens when four young men with autism, from a public school, are chosen to pilot a college inclusion program in NYC • I Go Down A music video about the ability of a musician not the disability of an autistic man

Huntington SEPTA

Northport/East Northport SEPTA

A Unique Film Festival

Hands Away

Including Samuel

Father's Voices

Look, I'm In College

I Go Down