Director’s Notes

The Little Mermaid — every little girl dreams of being part of this world. Take a closer look and we see an unhappy girl who has lost her mother and cannot please a father who wishes her to be everything her mother was. Add to the mix six siblings who can’t handle her being Daddy’s little darling and it’s a recipe for disaster. Her escape — the surface — where she longs to be human — something she knows nothing about but longs to be. Everything she sees she adores, though she has no understanding of it (even after it’s explained by the “know-it-all” seagull Scuttle). Though no one and nothing seem to be what they truly are, one character embraces her dreams and stays true to herself — Ariel — who holds fast to her ideals and finds love — both familial and romantic. Our lesson: happiness is within our grasp, no matter the obstacles. So long as we are secure in who we are and are unafraid to step outside of our comfort zone, we can find love and happiness. Enjoy the show!

Who’s Who in the Cast

ANDREW APRIGLIANO (Sailor/Sea Creature) is so happy to be in his second production at the high school. His previous roles include Steven in Bring It On, Ching Ho in Thoroughly Modern Millie, Doody in Grease, and Rapunzel’s Prince in Into the Woods. “I would like to thank Schwen for giving me this wonderful opportunity. I hope everyone enjoys the show.”

ANNA ARDELL (Sea Creature/Chef/Princess) is thrilled to be a part of this year’s Huntington High School production of The Little Mermaid. Anna has previously played a vulture in a production of The Jungle Book, Rizzo in a production of Grease, and was a Napkin/Villager in last year’s production of Beauty and the Beast. Anna wishes the best of luck to all the outgoing seniors, and a warm welcome to all the incoming freshmen, urging them to join Drama Club.

AMARA AYLER (Sea Creature/Gull/Chef) is appearing in her fourth consecutive show at Huntington High School. Drama Club is the biggest, most welcoming family. She is so grateful and lucky to be a part of such an amazing show and club; a club that has welcomed her for years and a club she will never forget. “The cast and crew, my forever family; I love Drama Club.”

ALYSSA BEFUMO (Sailor/Sea Creature/Princess) is performing for the first time with the Huntington High School Drama Club. She is very excited to be working with such a talented group of people. She would like to thank Mr. Schwendemann, Hosun, and Michelle for all of their dedication to this show. She hopes you enjoy the show.

OLIVIA BALDANZA (Flotsam) is a junior at Huntington High School, where this is her second show. In the past, Olivia played ensemble parts in Grease and Cinderella. Last year at the high school, she played a silly girl in Disney’s Beauty and the Beast. This year she is extremely excited to be playing Flotsam, with her friend Grace Gedeon as Jetsam. This is the first “evil” role that she has been given in her history of musicals, so she’s interested in exploring a new type of character. Olivia wants to thank the entire staff for all of their help and commitment because without them we, as students, wouldn’t be able to get these fantastic opportunities. Last, but not least, she wishes the best of luck to her castmates and the seniors moving on to their college years.

JORDAN BIENER (Sebastian) is in her second year in the Drama Club at the high school, but it’s her first year performing in the musical. Last year she was a student director for The Babbling Brooks and Beauty and the Beast. She is so excited to be in Huntington High School’s production of Disney’s The Little Mermaid playing the role of Sebastian. She would like to thank Mr. Schwendemann for giving her the opportunity to play this amazing role. She would also like to thank the incredible seniors in this year’s musical. The Drama Club will not be the same without them next year. She wants to wish the rest of the cast the best of luck. She hopes everyone enjoys the show.

CAROLANNE BUONIELLO (Arista) is elated to be performing in The Little Mermaid. This is her seventh show at Huntington High School. Some of her previous roles include Chip in Beauty and the Beast Jr., Lady Larken in Once Upon a Mattress, a narrator in Aladdin, Linus in You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown, Marta in The Sound of Music, Josie Pye in Anne of Green Gables, Sleeping Beauty in Into the Woods, Kay in The Babbling Brooks and Chip in Beauty and the Beast. Carolanne feels honored to have been able to work with such amazing people for the last four years and will dearly miss the Drama Club next year at college. She would also like to thank Ms. Freed for making us look as amazing as always, the pit for making us sound good and Lombo for helping us all the time. Lastly, she would like to thank Schwend for everything.

ISABELLA CAHILL (Andrina) is so excited to be performing in her second show at Huntington High School. She has been singing ever since she was a little girl and never once has she not enjoyed it. She would like to thank everyone who made Drama Club so special for her. She hopes you will enjoy the show!

RACHEL CARPENTER (Aurata/Chef) has had a bittersweet experience during this production of The Little Mermaid, as this is her final production at the high school. She is incredibly proud of everything her cast has done to reach this point, especially her fellow seniors. Drama Club has been her home for the past four years, and she ardently hopes that you enjoy the show that she and her castmates have poured their heart and soul into for the past few months. She wishes everyone the very best in their future endeavors and, of course, break legs!

PETER CICCONE (Sailor/Sea Creature/Chef) is excited to perform in his fourth show at Huntington High School. Past performances include The Music Man Jr., Aladdin Jr., Cinderella Jr., The Audition, The Babbling Brooks, Beauty and the Beast, and Don’t Drink the Water. He would like to thank Schwen for giving him this opportunity to be on stage again.

LUIS CUJI (Pilot/Sea Creature/Chef) is beyond excited to be a part of The Little Mermaid musical. It will be his first musical and he is already looking forward to the next. He is an aspiring multidimensional creator who loves to express art in a variety of ways, whether it be through film, music, or fashion. He plans to succeed in an industry involving any of the above.

NANCY FALLON (Ariel), a 12th grader, is currently appearing in her eighth (and final!) performance at Huntington High School. Regionally, Nancy has performed at the John W. Engeman Theater in Oliver! (Orphan/Fagin’s Gang/ Schoolgirl) and Miracle on 34th Street (Brigitte/Dutch Girl). Other shows at Huntington High School include Lady Windermere’s Fan (Ensemble), The Sound of Music (Brigitte Von Trapp), Anne of Green Gables (Miss Minnie), Into the Woods (Little Red Ridinghood), The Babbling Brooks (Norma Brooks), Disney’s Beauty and the Beast (Belle), and most recently, Don’t Drink the Water (Marion Hollander). She has also played Sarah Brown in Guys and Dolls and Queen Aggravain in Once Upon A Mattress, both at Finley Middle School. Other credits include You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown (Violet), 13 (Molly), and Alice in Wonderland (Small Alice). She would like to thank Mr. Schwendemann, Ms. Freed, Ms. Lombardi, Mr. Krakel, and Mr. Helmeke, as well as the amazing cast and crew for supporting her and making this show incredible! First she climbed every mountain, then went into the woods, found her home, and is now finishing her journey by going under the sea. Before it’s finished however, she wants to thank everyone who has joined her on her wonderful journey, both past and present, while wishing her fellow graduates the best in their future endeavors and in everything they do.

GRACE GEDEON (Jetsam) was ecstatic when she discovered that she would be playing Jetsams in Disney’s The Little Mermaid. She has been in previous school productions and played roles such as Cinderella in Rodgers and Hammerstein’s Cinderella, Rapunzel in Into the Woods, and Lady with a Cane and Gargoyles in Disney’s Beauty and the Beast. Along with her other half, Olivia Baldanza, both worked hard on their roles as Flotsam and Jetsam, Ursa’s electric eel henchmen. Grace is happy to be a part of another Huntington High School musical production and proud of her fellow castmates. She enjoyed rehearsal leading up to the show and watched as her castmates turned the musical into an amazing production. Grace could not be more thankful for her talented friends and enjoyed all the moments she shared with everyone this season. She wishes them the best of luck and thanks the cast, crew, Ms. Freed, Michelle, and Schwendemann for all their hard work and dedication, for without it, this production wouldn’t have been possible.

ANN GLACKIN (Flounder) is the definition of an old soul. She likes chocolate, lace, tea, books, and wool blankets far more than any teenager should. Paradoxically, she is also a five year old at heart who smiles at the mere mention of sparkles, fairies, or Disney. Being involved in Disney’s The Little Mermaid has been an absolute joy for Ann. She was so thrilled to join the Huntington High School
Drama Club last year and can’t believe that it is already nearly time to leave. She can’t imagine her life without the wonderful, zany second family she has found through Drama Club. She has had the time of her life fighting dragons with all of you. She would like to dedicate her performance to many people: To her sister who made her start theater; To her parents who never tried to tell her to stop; To Gene Forman who showed her how; To LJ Kindall who is staying behind — never quit; To Brianne Neira who is part of two of her second families, she is so honored to share the stage with you one last time; To her fellow seniors who she will miss always; To the underclassmen, who will lead the way for all newbies; To Schwen and Lombo who turned unfamiliar territory into a home for a high school junior who almost lost her way; and finally to Melissa Ingle, who has known her longest and has always made her love theater more, who would always discuss soundtracks and the littlest details at great length, and has done an amazing and inspiring job of always chasing down her dream. See you on Broadway! She will always love the experiences she has had with the HHSDC and she will be visiting for years to come. But for now, she is ready to go Under the Sea and will be visiting for years to come. The Babbling Brooks is her best musical production at Huntington High School. She was in last year’s performance of Disney’s The Little Mermaid. Andrew has been in multiple shows at Huntington High School including The Sound of Music (Kurt), Anne of Green Gables (Moody), Into the Woods (Steward), The Babbling Brooks (Homer), Beauty and the Beast (Marion), and Don’t Drink the Water (Walter). Drama Club has been one of the most memorable parts of the high school experience for him. Andrew would like to dedicate his performance this evening to all the people he has met through Drama Club and would like to thank them for being such an influential part of his life. He would like to thank Mr. Schwendemann for putting up with his b, as well as Mrs. Freed for helping put all the props together. Break a leg, ya freaks!

FRANCESCA GRECO
(Sea Creature/Princess) is thrilled to perform in her first musical production as a part of Huntington High School’s Drama Club. This may be her first show, but it is certainly not her last! She is absolutely honored to take part in The Little Mermaid, as well as to work alongside the wonderful cast members and faculty in the show. She’d like to thank everyone who made this show possible, and to wish good luck to the rest of the cast. Enjoy the show!

MELISSA INGLE
(Student Director) This is Melissa’s last production with the Huntington High School Drama Club, however she plans on continuing theatre in college by studying directing. She recently student directed the Drama Club’s fall play, Don’t Drink the Water. Her other credits include an edited version of 15 Reasons NOT to be in a Play (Director), Disney’s Beauty and the Beast (Student Director/Ensemble), The Babbling Brooks (Student Director/Ensemble), The Tourist (Director), and Painting. She would like to wish everyone in the cast and crew good luck, as well as send a shout out to her loving family, and her sister Kathryn.

JESSICA HENNING
(Sea Creature/Maid/Chef) is in her first show, and she’s excited! She finally decided to get a life, and now she’s found it is better down where it’s wetter! Even though she’s a newbie, Mr. Schwendemann gave her a chance, so she’ll do her best!

CAROLINE MAGGIO
(Sea Creature/Princess) is back and more excited than ever to get back on the stage after a two-year hiatus. She has been so excited about doing the musical ever since she found out it was based on one of her favorite childhood movies, Disney’s The Little Mermaid. This will be Ms. Maggio’s second performance here at Huntington High School where she appeared in Rodgers & Hammerstein’s The Sound Of Music (Nun’s Chorus). She will be attending Quinnipiac University in the fall to study education in the hopes of becoming a teacher, and she couldn’t be more excited! She wants to thank everyone for making her senior year, and her last show at Huntington, so special. Break a leg!

KEVIN McCONNELL
(Prince Eric) is super excited to be in his very last show with all of his amazing friends. The cast and advisors of Drama Club have helped to make Kevin’s experience at Huntington High School incredible. Kevin would like to especially thank Schwen, Freed, Mama Cass, Lombo, and all three tech directors for continually putting on fantastic shows every year and the whole cast for always putting forth their absolute best effort. Enjoy the show!

BRIANNE NEIRA
(Attina) is best known for having really small hands. Seriously, they’re tiny. People call her “Baby Hands Brianne.” Go up to her after the show and put your hand to hers and you’ll see how small they are. She’s also got a super low voice, like Morgan Freeman, only a girl version. Brianne loves berry hibiscus cranberry juice and short walks on the beach, because she gets tired quickly. She is very proud of her beagle, who got accepted to Carnegie Melon (early acceptance). Her hands are really dry lately, so if you know of a good lotion, hit her up.

HANNAH OLESEN
(Sea Creature/Princess) is very excited to be doing another musical in Huntington High School. She was in last year’s production of Beauty and the Beast and loved it and thought it turned out great, but she thinks this show is going to be even better. Hannah is in eleventh grade and can’t wait for everyone to see the show!

CHRIS PORZIO

(Sea Creature) is ecstatic to be performing with you all! This is his first show at Huntington High School. His past roles include Aladdin Jr. (Ensemble), The Little Mermaid Jr. (Chef), The Audition (Actor), and You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown (Peanuts Gang). He loves seeing Broadway shows and reading Playbill and listening to Broadway music. Special shout-out to Hosun, Michelle, Schwen, and Mainville (who prepped him for this over the summer). Enjoy the show!

AMELIA REILLY

(Allana/ Chef) is so excited to be under the sea. This will be the third time you see her on the Huntington High School stage. She hopes you will all be caught hook, line, and sinker in love with the show. She would also like to give a huge thank you to Schwen for keeping us all afloat!

LOGAN RICE

(King Triton) is elated to perform in yet another amazing show with an equally amazing cast! This is his third show with the Drama Club, previously playing the roles of The Beast in Beauty and the Beast last spring and Krojack in Don’t Drink the Water this past fall. He feels honored for the opportunity to give his take on the character of King Triton. He would like to thank his castmates (and wish them the best of luck!), and his and Bradley Landberg’s parents for driving the two of them home every single day without fail (we can all learn a thing or two from dedication like that).

BAILEY RIOROAN

(Sailor/ Adella/Gull/Chef) is in her third production with the Huntington High School Drama Club. This program has truly changed her life and she couldn’t have asked for a better family with whom to spend so many hard working hours. She will be attending (enter university name here) for early childhood education in the fall. She hopes to continue her theatre career at (enter university name here) for early childhood education in the fall. She hopes to continue her theatre career at (enter university name here) for early childhood education in the fall. She hopes to continue her theatre career at (enter university name here) for early childhood education in the fall.

NICOLE SEVILLA

(Sea Creature/Maid) is proud to be part of the cast of Disney’s The Little Mermaid. Besides playing a sailor, she has been cast as a maid and a sea creature. Nicole’s past performances have been starring in: Annie, as the Hooverville cow, The Wizard of Oz as a member of the Lollipop Guild, Joseph and the Technicolor Dreamcoat in the ensemble, and Disney’s Beauty and the Beast as a wolf. Not only does she enjoy the overall experience of performing, but having the ability to bond with the cast. So far, Nicole has been loving everything that has to do with this year’s musical and can’t wait for next year’s performance!

MADDIE SHEA

(Ursula) is honored to portray Ursula in Disney’s The Little Mermaid, her sixth Huntington High School Drama Club production, and to work with such an amazing cast, especially the wonderful seniors. She would like to thank the cast, crew, and staff for making these past few months so special. Favorite credits include: Parade in Concert at Lincoln Center with Jason Robert Brown (Broadway Festival Chorus, Music Supervisor: Tom Murray); The Secret Garden at Lincoln Center (Broadway Festival Chorus, Music Supervisor: Michael Kosarin, Dir: Stafford Arima); Mary Flynn in Merrily We Roll Along (Long Island Musical Theatre Festival); Gertrude McFuzz in Seussical the Musical (John W. Engeman Theater, Dir: Casey Erin Clark).

PHOEBE WALther

(Sea Creature/Gull/Chef/ Princess) is in her first Huntington High School performance. She loves the cast and loved getting to know everyone. Phoebe is playing the roles of a sea creature, seagull, chef, and princess. She had so much fun putting the show together and hopes to do it again next year.

MARY KATE WOLBER

(Windward/Maid) is a junior here at Huntington High School and is excited to be performing in her second show with the Drama Club. After performing in last year’s production of Disney’s Beauty and the Beast as the Milkmaid, there was no doubt in her head not to do it again. After being cast as Windward in this year’s production, she has had nothing but fun throughout rehearsals. She, along with the cast, have put in hours of work to make the show the best they can. Disney’s The Little Mermaid has truly become one of her favorites after this year. The junior is eager to perform once again with the cast who has become a family.

JUSTIN “Stellar” WAITE

(Grimsby) is sad that this is his seventh and final show with the Huntington High School Drama Club. He was recently accepted into the theater program at LIU Post where he plans on studying musical theater. Other productions in which he’s been a part are Don’t Drink the Water (Sultan of Bashir), Disney’s Beauty and the Beast (Monsieur D’Arque), The Babbling Brooks (Student Director/Ensemble), Into the Woods (Cinderella’s Father), and recently he participated in Broadhollow Theater Company’s summer production of The Music Man. He would to thank the cast and crew for an amazing four-year experience. It has been an amazing journey learning new things in the club and meeting many inspirational people. “Thank you to Schwen and Freed for making this club something I will never forget. Good Luck to the cast and crew!”
Congratulations Kevin!

Your hard work and talent Truly impress us.
We are so proud of you and Wish you luck!!
Break a leg!

Congratulations Brianne!

Over the years we have had the pleasure of watching you transform yourself into a 50’s high school principal, an 80’s Prom Queen, a nun, a private school student who dreams of breaking free from convention and a bossy mother.

We can’t wait to see your performance as a Mersister, your final show at HHS.

Exciting things await you at Marymount Manhattan. We could not be prouder of all you have achieved and look forward to cheering you on as you pursue your dreams.

Carpe Diem!

Love Always

Proud to support Huntington High School Drama Club
So proud of our brilliant “CRAB.”
Way to go, Jordan!

We love you,
Aunt Ilene, Uncle Rob,
Julia & Aaron

Nancy and William,
I am very excited to see you both in this production! I am so proud of you and all of your accomplishments! I cherish the time I get to spend with you. Always know that I love you.

Break a Leg!
Love, Nana

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

to all of the parents and families who contributed to our success.

Whether soliciting ads or donations; organizing concession, bake sales and dinners; making fabulous raffle baskets; coordinating t-shirt and dinner orders; ticket sales, videotaping and photographing the show; designing our beautiful display — all of these pieces and more have come together to make this fantastic show happen.

You should all be proud!

To our parents who are moving on to college, you will be dearly missed!

HHS Drama Parents

Grace, you are my star and my love.
Break a leg, Jetsam!
Love, Mom

Freedom From Food & Weight Issues
If you struggle with eating and weight issues, you are not alone. Effective nutrition counseling can help overcome these patterns.

Learn to:
- Nourish your body by returning to a healthy relationship with food
- Reconnect with internal signals of hunger and fullness
- Stop emotional and deprivation-driven eating
- End preoccupation with food
- Rediscover enjoyment in eating

Jeannie is a nutrition therapist who specializes in counseling for eating, body image and weight issues and is an expert in the treatment of eating disorders.

Brianne … “Make your life extraordinary.”

Melissa – Break a leg to the next Stephen Sondheim! Hugs and Fishes from your big sis.

Kevin – It has been amazing watching you grow over the past four years. It feels like yesterday that we were sitting in Panera and I was filling you in on the ins and outs of Drama Club and yet, here you are, a senior! I’m so proud of the wonderful, kind, smart, talented, hilarious, and dedicated young man that you are and I look forward to seeing everything you do in your amazing future. Lots of love and luck. Love, Night Hawk.

Maddie—It is incredible to see such a sweet girl pull off an evil sea witch so well. Truly a testament to your talent! You are a star and I’m lucky to have such a talented little sister. You accept every role with grace and perform it beautifully. Love you lots & Break Legs. Love, Stephanie

To our favorite Senior– you know who you are! How will we ever survive without you? You will do amazing things! Love, hugs & kisses from your other family.

I know you’re going to nail it! Break a leg, Maddie! Love, Allie
Congratulations

KEVIN

It has been a pleasure watching you truly grow on this stage from your first appearance as the youngest von Trapp, Georg, through your very diverse yet always remarkable & enjoyable roles to now being Prince Eric.

All our love

Mom, Dad, Kelly, Brian, Matthew
And of course Lucy

Drama Club Seniors 2016

4 years ago you entered the auditorium to...

The Sound of Music
Together we ventured...
Into the Woods
Where we learned...
No One is Alone
And with each other we would always have a...
Home
Where our relationship was like that of a...
Beauty and the Beast
Now as you swim off into the future like a...
Little Mermaid
I wish I could keep you forever.
If Only.
We have shared laughter – tears – sadness & joy!
The times we shared will live in my memory forever.
Thank you for sharing part of yourselves with me.
