“THE WHOLE SECRET OF A SUCCESSFUL LIFE IS TO FIND OUT WHAT IS ONE’S DESTINY TO DO
— AND THEN DO IT.”

—HENRY FORD

Brenden Abedin

Striving for perfection and motivation have been Brenden's keys to success. To Brenden, college is one of the most important things in life and he knows that good grades are the basis of getting into a prestigious college. He has most enjoyed building relationships with teachers and friends. Highlights of Brenden's extra-curricular activities include Varsity Soccer and Habitat for Humanity. Brenden is also a proud member of the Science, Math, Social Studies and National Honor Societies and Student Government. Brenden intends to earn a business degree and then obtain a law degree.

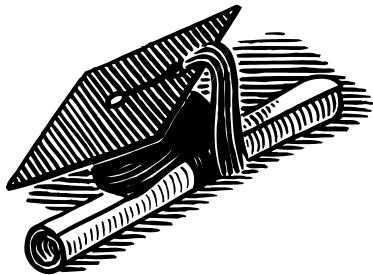

Ryan Aguirre

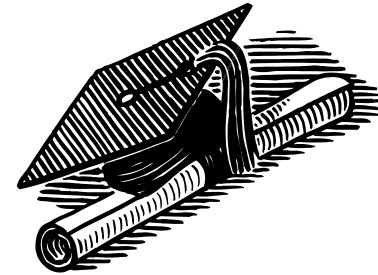

Ryan owes his success to his optimistic attitude, treating others with kindness and respect, and always looking on the bright side. Ryan has most enjoyed performing on stage - either in Drama Club or K-Factor with his closest friends. Ryan has enjoyed seeing his friends every day and the many laughs they have had at HHS. Some of Ryan's noteworthy accomplishments are being a part of the HBDMB, being voted into Natural Helpers in Freshmen year, and becoming President Senior year. Ryan was also proud of being in every HHS Drama Club production since Freshman year. Ryan will study History in the future.

Isabella Algieri

Robin Zheng

Adamaris Ventura Sanchez

Adamaris' success stems from her mother's motivational talks. She has big hopes for her daughter's bright future. Adamaris just wants to make her mother proud! She has most enjoyed the many school events that HHS has to offer, such as Relay for Life, K-Factor, Float Night, and Bonfire. Adamaris' noteworthy accomplishments include being a part of Natural Helpers, High Achievement in Chemistry Certificate, Varsity and High Honor Roll Certificates. She is also a proud member of the Spanish and National Honor Societies. Adamaris will be majoring in Criminology in the future.

Grace Wildermuth

Grace credits taking classes that truly interest her as the key to her success. AP Music Theory, APUSH, and AP Biology have been so engaging it makes learning easier. Grace also stresses the importance of getting enough sleep! Having a good balance of work, sleep, and fun makes it easier to be successful. So many teachers and classes have impacted Grace, but her number one reason to come to school has been her Art class with Mrs. Singer. Mrs. Singer is kind, helpful and cares about all her students so much. In addition, most of her happiest school memories have been in Orchestra, Chamber Orchestra, Pit Orchestra, and Jazz Band. Grace's noteworthy accomplishments include 1st Chair Bassist All-State (2019), All-Eastern Bassist (2021), Tri-M President, and Co-Valedictorian for the Class of 2021. Grace has not yet decided on a college, but will major in Music or History.

Bryan Wong

Bryan attributes his success simply to a lot of studying! He usually spends at least 1-2 hours reading or doing exercises from various math textbooks. He believes learning a new subject within a field of study takes time, whether this time lets a concept sink in or helps him compete a tedious problem, he knows that it is necessary to give himself that study time. Bryan's favorite parts of his high school experience have been the clubs that he participates in, Marching Band, Mathletics, Cross Country, and the Honor Music Ensembles. His most proud moments have been completing challenging courses. Taking and succeeding in Calc BC as a sophomore, completing two college courses this year and keeping a steady dedication to learning has been hard work, but very rewarding. Bryan has not yet decided on a college, but will major in Mathematics in the Fall.

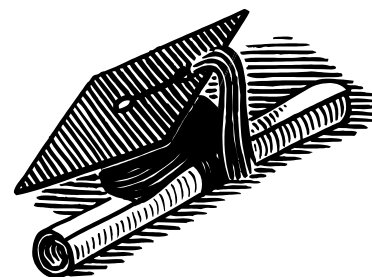

Alexa Amorison

Alexa attributes her success to hard work, determination and getting a head start on all assignments. She also knows how important it is to give herself a mental break so she doesn't burn herself out. Being in class with her friends has made learning fun and was one aspect of HHS that she enjoyed most. Noteworthy accomplishments include Pride Awards in Spanish, English and Phys. Ed. Alexa is a member of the Math, Social Studies, Science, English, Spanish and National Honor Societies. She also plays on Varsity soccer, basketball and lacrosse. Alexa is most proud of her 50+ hours volunteering at Huntington Hospital. She will major in Nursing at Molloy College.

Joshua Bailin

Alexander Bellissimo

Alex credits hard work and not letting any challenge get in his way as the keys to his success. Having good relationships with his teachers is important to him because it made him feel comfortable learning and asking questions. Alex most enjoyed being challenged in his Science and Math classes. He also loved being a part of the baseball and football teams. Alex's noteworthy accomplishments include participating in the New Orleans Habitat for Humanity build, being Captain of the Varsity baseball team, and being named Co-Valedictorian. Alex plans to study Aerospace Engineering at University of Virginia.

Aidan Bender

Setting goals and reaching them, along with hard work and dedication, have been the keys to Aidan's success. He believes in himself and that has played an important part of his achievements. Meeting new people and forming friendships have been highlights at HHS. Aidan is a proud member of the Social Studies, Math and National Honor Societies. His plan is to study Business at Penn State.

Alexander Berg

Sarah Biernacki

Sarah attributes finding a passion and surrounding herself with people who support her as the keys to her success. Being authentic and true to herself has made her feel more confident and proud of her accomplishments. She has most enjoyed classes where students were able to have open and expressive discussions. Being an intern in Concert Choir has been a highlight at HHS. Noteworthy accomplishments include Drama Club for four years, award winning National History Day projects, and Student Director of the Woodhull Drama Club. Sarah plans to study acting at Ohio University.

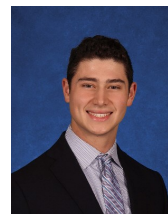

Miles Tierney

Miles' key to success is keeping a good balance between academics, extracurriculars, and his social life. Miles has enjoyed extracurricular activities such as sports, the HBDMB and all of the many other social events that Huntington has to offer. Through all of these activities, Miles has made many friends, and formed countless relationships with teachers and staff. Highlights of his extracurricular involvement include Drum Major of the HBDMB, First Chair Saxophone, and Team Captain for the Fencing team. He has also been a member of the Natural Helpers. Miles intends to major in Music Education in the Fall.

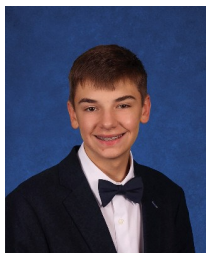

Gabrielle Trimboli

Gabrielle owes her success to the great teachers she has had at Huntington High School. She has most enjoyed meeting and being with her closest friends, the selection of classes that she has taken and the amazing teachers she had all four years. Highlights of Gabrielle's extracurricular involvement include the Women's Empowerment Club, High Arts Showcase, and National Italian Exam Bronze Medal. Although Gabrielle has not yet decided on a major, she will be attending SUNY Purchase in the Fall.

Nicholas Tudisco

Nicholas surrounds himself with people who have similar goals and the same work ethic that he does. This, along with time management skills to balance his academics, and playing on two sport teams, has been the key to his success. Nicholas transitioned from a private school to Huntington. Although it was difficult, it was the best decision he could have made. His favorite moment in high school was becoming a part of the Huntington family. He became closer with many people through Football, Wrestling, Natural Helpers and hanging out with friends outside of school. He is grateful for the many new friends that supported him. Highlights of Nicholas' extracurricular involvement include Wrestling Varsity Starter, recipient of Coach's Award, Football Varsity Starter, recipient of Best Lineman Award, and a Natural Helpers member. He is also a proud member of the Math and Latin Honor Societies.

Andrew Spina II

Andrew owes his success to his motivation and independence. He has most enjoyed the many clubs that Huntington has to offer. He will never forget the relationships he has formed with teachers and fellow students. Highlights of Andrew's extracurricular involvement include HBDMB, Huntington Stage Crew, Student Government, Jazz Ensemble and earning four Pride Awards. Andrew intends to study Music Education at SUNY Potsdam in the Fall.

Tess Stanley

The key to Tess' success is perseverance. She always pushes herself in her academics, work ethic and extracurricular involvement. This perseverance has allowed her to pursue her love of learning, even during a global pandemic, and participate in meaningful community activities. Tess has most enjoyed surrounding herself with friends who support and push her to do her best, making connections with teachers, and being able to explore her varied interests through classes like AP Seminar and AP Research. Tess has especially enjoyed being a part of the wonderful community that is Huntington High School. Highlights of Tess' extracurricular involvement include earning her Seal of Biliteracy in Spanish, Environmental Club, HBDMB, and playing Field Hockey. Tess is also a proud member of the Science and National Honor Societies. While Tess, has not yet decided on a college, she will be studying Neuroscience in the Fall.

Julia Steinberg

Torin Bograd

Torin owes his success to his amazing teachers who motivate him to do the best he can. The support of his friends and coaches has been a very important part of that endeavor. Playing sports and creating relationships with his teammates and coaches have been highlights for Torin. The relationships he has formed with Mrs. Byrnes, Coach Muller, and Coach Jamison are very special to him. Noteworthy accomplishments include being Captain and Starter for JV and Varsity football for three years and a four year Varsity Starter in lacrosse. Torin received the Scholar Athlete Award and achieved Honor Roll throughout high school. He is also a proud member of the Social Studies Honor Society. Torin plans to play lacrosse and study Business/Physical Therapy at SUNY Geneseo.

Aidan Bonn

Aidan's approach to success is being able to balance his academic and social responsibilities. At HHS, he has most enjoyed developing relationships with his teachers and making a diverse network of friendships. Highlights of his extracurricular involvement include Habitat for Humanity and going to New Orleans to help build a home and playing on the Varsity lacrosse and football teams. Aidan plans to major in Marketing at Fairleigh Dickinson University, Florham Campus.

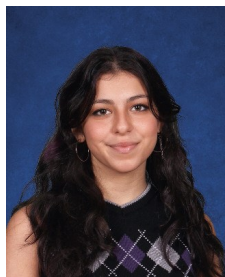

Danielle Brite

Danielle attributes determination, hard work, and commitment as the keys to her success. This, combined with balancing her life in and out of school, has been an important part of this endeavor. Danielle is driven by the pride she feels when she does well. She has learned that it's important to spend time with friends and just take a break when needed. Her accomplishments include participation in NYLF Medicine at St. John's University, winning Art and Music Pride Awards, playing flute in SCMEA, and competing in NYSSMA. Danielle won an Honorable Mention in a Japan writing contest, obtained Honor/High Honor Roll and is a proud member of the Spanish Honor Society. Danielle intends to study Psychology in the future.

Ava Brosnan

Mia Brown

Mia credits her success to hard work, her study habits and taking classes that interest her. She has enjoyed many aspects of high school, including Mr. Cohen's Freshman Biology class, AP Physics, studying Literature, Women's Empowerment Club, and Relay for Life. She has also enjoyed the friendships she has formed and the amazing teachers at HHS. Highlights of Mia's extracurricular activities are President of Women's Empowerment Club, Secretary of French Honor Society, Mathletics, GSA, Environmental Club, and Science Research. She is also a proud member of the Math, Science, Social Studies, and National Honor Societies. Mia has not yet decided on a major, but she will be attending University of Virginia in the Fall.

Chloe Buffone

Success for Chloe has been balancing hard work with hobbies. This has allowed her to remain focused while doing what she loves. Chloe has mostly enjoyed participating in events such as Relay for Life, K- Factor, and Float Night. Meeting new friends and teachers has been a highlight at HHS. Noteworthy accomplishments include being chosen for SCMEA four times, All-State, and All-Eastern. She is also a proud member of the Science, Music, Latin, English and National Honor Societies.

Christopher Segreti

The key to Christopher's success has been taking challenging classes in as many subject areas as possible. This helped him develop an excellent work ethic as well as good time management skills. His favorite aspect of high school has been playing on the Huntington Blue Devil Baseball team. Seeing his teammates during the day in classes and then meeting after school to play games and practice has been a highlight for Christopher. He values those friendships as well as all of his Baseball coaches. Highlights of Christopher's extracurricular involvement include Natural Helpers, receiving All-League as a Sophomore, and being named Captain of the Baseball team Junior year. Noteworthy accomplishments include completing the English-Spanish Dual Language Program and being inducted into Math, Science and National Honor Societies. Christopher has not yet decided on a college, but will be studying Engineering in the Fall.

Kate Sheran

The key to Kate's success has been maintaining a positive outlook and making the most out of what she has been given. She has learned to take things as they come rather than stress over future obstacles. The most enjoyable parts of high school have been participating in school wide events like Float Night, Homecoming, and K Factor. Creating bonds with teachers and peers has made HHS a safe space for all of her ideas and interests. Kate's noteworthy accomplishments include being a Key Club Administrative Assistant, President of the National English Honor Society, Highstepper, and an Intern for Mrs. Desiderio. Kate will be studying Neuroscience and/or Psychology at Wesleyan University in the Fall.

Ella Siepel

Listening to a lot of music, along with completing all her schoolwork and not letting it pile up, has led to Ella's success. She has most enjoyed the opportunity to participate in many different activities and clubs, which have provided her with many positive opportunities. Through participating in athletics and musical ensembles, she has made many friends. Highlights of Ella's extracurricular involvement include playing in Huntington's Chamber Pit and Honors Orchestras. She also ran Cross Country and Track for Huntington. While she has not decided on a major as of yet, Ella will be attending the University of Rochester in the Fall.

Cameron Santa-Maria

Cameron attributes his success to hard work. Whether it's schoolwork, sports or a club activity, he always puts forth 100%. Making lifelong friendships from kindergarten has been an aspect of school that he has most enjoyed. Having amazing teachers like Mrs. Furman has inspired him to major in Business in college. Finally, playing Football and running Track has been an amazing experience. Cameron states that being an athlete for Huntington has created memories he will never forget. Highlights of Cameron's extracurricular involvement include Habitat for Humanity, Key Club, Varsity Football and Track. Noteworthy accomplishments include Honor Roll for four years and being a proud member of the National Honor Society.

Angel Santiago

Angel believes the key to his success was reminding himself the reason why he is doing this in the first place! Being able to take classes that interest him has been most beneficial to his future. He has also enjoyed making friends and connections with classmates and teachers during his time at HHS. Highlights of his extracurricular involvement include making parade floats, volunteering at Huntington Hospital and simply hanging out with friends. Although, Angel has not yet decided on a college, he intends to study Nursing in the future.

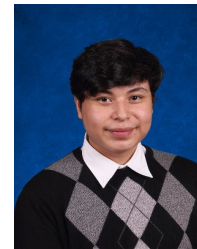

Andreas Seferian

Andreas credits working together with his classmates on homework and assignments as the keys to his success. It enabled him to get a variety of different perspectives and understanding of the material. He has most enjoyed the wide variety of extracurricular activities available to him at Huntington. He has also liked taking classes that interest him with good teachers and close friends. One of Andreas' most noteworthy accomplishments is being a National Merit Finalist. He has not yet decided on a college but will be studying Engineering in the Fall.

Johanna Campos-Moreira

Johanna credits her Mother and Aunt as the keys to her success. They both made a lot of sacrifices and continually guided her in the right direction so she could fulfill her dreams. Their advice, inspiration and empowerment have driven her to work hard for what she wants in life. The passing of her Mother in Junior year showed her how strong she is and gave her some very special relationships with teachers. They supported her and guided her to become a better person and will always have a special place in her heart. Johanna's accomplishments include National, Math, Social Studies, English, Spanish and Art Honor Societies. She is a part of United Amigos and New World Mentoring Club. Johanna played soccer for 4 years, won a Merit Award from LIAA and a scholarship from the Hispanic Heritage Foundation. Her intended major is Fashion Design.

David Canas Granados

David owes his success to hard work and determination. While taking AP and Honors classes and working a part time job, being organized and following a schedule has played an important part in his busy life. David has most enjoyed acting on stage with the Drama Club and spinning on the field with the Color Guard. Relationships with friends and teachers has made his time at HHS more enjoyable. Noteworthy achievements for David include playing the part of Peter Van Daan in The Diary of Anne Frank. He also received the Hispanic Student Achievement award from the Town of Huntington. He intends to major in Political Science along with the Chinese Flagship Program at CUNY Hunter College.

Taylor Case

Taylor believes that finding a balance between academics and social activities was extremely important to her success. She has enjoyed a wide variety of activities, such as Student Government, business classes, sports, and building friendships. Taylor's involvement in Cross Country has been a highlight for her. Noteworthy accomplishments include being CEO of Virtual Enterprise and Class of 2021 President. She intends to major in Business/Marketing at University of Delaware.

Niurca Chabla-Leon

Niurca attributes her success to the support of her family and teachers. Focusing on her education and having the mindset that she can accomplish anything has played an important part in that endeavor. Noteworthy accomplishments for Niurca include drawing for the Yearbook, receiving an award from NYS for her community service, becoming President of the Art Honor Society and being a member of the National Honor Society. Niurca intends to major in Art and Design Education at Adelphi University.

Aaron Chin

The key to Aaron's success has been hard work. He learned that working hard has many rewards and benefits, such as preparing him for the future. Aaron also realized that it's important to relax and take time for yourself to do fun things. He has most enjoyed forming lifelong friendships and getting to know the faculty at HHS. Noteworthy accomplishments include participating in Marching Band, Wind Ensemble, and Jazz Band. He was President of Habitat for Humanity, belonged to Natural Helpers, participated in the Internship Program, and played on the Tennis team. Aaron's plans are to study Creative Writing.

Jazmynn Clark

Jazmynn credits her success to the support of her family, teachers and friends. This, along with her diligence, has made it possible for her to do her absolute best. Jazmynn's most enjoyable moments include Marching Band, joining clubs and forming new friendships. These relationships and activities have made her experience at HHS a lot of fun and provided her with endless memories. Jazmynn's favorite extracurricular involvement has been being part of the Color Guard. It gave her a place to be herself, expand her skill set, and become a leader. She has formed special bonds with amazing people that she will cherish forever. Jazmynn intends to study Nursing in the future.

Ludis Romero

Being consistent and responsible with her workload, along with a strong work ethic, have been the key to Ludis' success. She has most enjoyed learning new things every day. She also loved being creative and expressing herself through Art. Science and Social Studies have been her favorite subjects. Noteworthy accomplishments include earning a Pride Award and being a proud member of the Italian and National Honor Societies. Ludis will be studying Nursing at Molloy College.

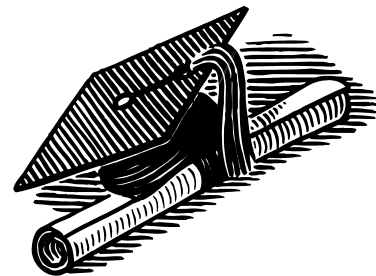

Richard Rongo

Richard's success begins with his ability and willingness to work independently. He also credits the continued help and support of his family, which has aided him in reaching his goals. Richard has most enjoyed the overall social aspect of high school. He is also grateful for the variety of electives offered at HHS, which helped point him towards the direction of a Business degree. Highlights of Richard's extracurricular involvement include Halesite Junior Firefighters, Varsity Tennis, Suffolk County Legislative Distinguished Youth Award, and Lead by Example Summer Internship Program. He is also a proud member of the National Honor Society. Although Richard has not yet decided on a college, he intends to study Accounting in the Fall.

Katia Sanchez Fuentes

Julie Rogel

Julie credits her success to becoming involved in activities that she truly enjoys and is passionate about. This, along with her time management skills, has led her to academic success. Her most memorable aspects of her high school experience have been playing Varsity Field Hockey as a goalkeeper for the past four years as well as her involvement in the Key Club, and being a member of the Chamber Orchestra. Highlights of Julie's extracurricular involvement are All Division Goalkeeper for Field Hockey, Co-Chair of Science Story Time, STEM Reading Initiative through Science National Honor Society, and shadowing at two PT practices. Julie's intended major is Kinesiology and Physical Therapy at the University of Scranton where she will also be playing Field Hockey.

Valerie Rogel

Valerie's key to success has been eating cucumber slices every day during fourth period. Most enjoyable highlights from her time at Huntington include advancing to NYS History Day, keeping mice for her freshman year Science Research Project, and persevering through AP Chemistry surrounded by her friends. However, the opportunity for Valerie to make memories with her Track and Cross Country teammates each day truly takes the cake! Noteworthy accomplishments include completing five half marathons and placing All-League and All-Division as a Captain of the Cross Country and Track teams. Valerie also held Internships at Stony Brook's School of Marine and Atmospheric Sciences as well as Cold Spring Harbor Laboratories. Valerie intends to major in Statistics and Public Health at Columbia University.

Joseph Rombaldi

Joseph owes his success to being surrounded by a positive environment. The support of his friends, family, and teachers has played an important part in his academic achievement. Joseph has most enjoyed the Science and Social Studies courses that he has taken. Meeting new people and making new friends through classes and extracurricular activities has made his time at HHS more memorable. Highlights of Joseph's extracurricular involvement include being a part of the HBDMB, getting a leadership position this year, and being awarded a Certificate of Honor in his Sophomore year in Chemistry from Ms. Forbes. Joseph will be majoring in Engineering in the future.

Matthew Colavecchio

Matthew is determined to achieve greatness! Determination was what helped him complete assignments to the best of his ability and get the best grades possible. Developing life skills throughout high school has taught him to take responsibility for his work and has enabled him to help others in and out of school. Highlights of his extracurricular involvement include Student Government and all the activities they participated in to help the Community, including Stuff The Bus, Safe Halloween, and Float Night. Matthew intends to major in Social Studies Education/Political Science at SUNY Geneseo.

Adora Colay

Adora attributes her success to her family and their confidence in her and the choices she makes. She has most enjoyed spending time with friends before classes and laughing with them while at lunch. She also enjoyed Fencing with an amazing and supportive team for three years. Adora's noteworthy accomplishments include Captain of the Girl's Fencing team, 2nd Team All-League Women's Sabre (2019-2020), Honorable Mention All-County (2019-2020), 2nd Team All-County (2020-2021). Adora intends to major in Pre-Veterinary/Biology.

Kyle Colleluori

Kyle's approach to success has been to never procrastinate. He has made it a point to complete all of his assignments as early and effectively as possible. This greatly reduced his stress and never allowed work to pile up. He has most enjoyed playing sports at HHS. Playing baseball and golf has allowed him to combine his two favorite things, friends and competition. He looks forward to each sporting season and it is what he will miss the most. Kyle's noteworthy accomplishments include All-League Honors for baseball as a Sophomore, Captain of the baseball team during Junior and Senior years, and being chosen as an alternate for the 2020 Mathcom competition. Kyle plans to major in Finance in the future.

Nathaniel Deegan

Nathaniel credits his success to all the wonderful opportunities the Huntington School District has gifted him with and all of the role models he has had from Kindergarten to Senior year. He has most enjoyed being involved with extracurricular activities that have made him closer to the community and helped him form new friendships. Noteworthy accomplishments include visiting Italy with EF tours, Student Government and the Interact Club. Nathaniel plans to study Marketing in the future.

Andrea Delcid Ayala

Andrea's keys to success have been achieved through her organization, time management, prioritization, concentration and motivational skills. She also credits the support of her family as a big part in achieving her success. Andrea has most enjoyed being a part of a sports team, different clubs and honor societies. She will always remember her amazing teachers and the friends she has made along the way. Highlights of her extracurricular involvement include Key Club, Debate Club, JV and Varsity Field Hockey, Honor Roll, Stage Crew, and community service. She is also a proud member of the Spanish, English, and National Honor Societies. Andrea plans to major in Psychology or Neuroscience.

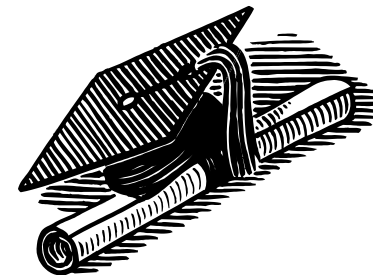

Isabella DiBenedetto

Dreaming of attending a top college since she was a young girl has been her motivation. This motivation has been the key to her success. Isabella has always challenged herself with an assortment of difficult classes. She has most enjoyed playing field hockey throughout high school. She is very thankful for the memories she has made on the team. Isabella's noteworthy accomplishments include President of Interact Club, Vice President of the Italian Honor Society, and Tutoring Coordinator of the National Honor Society. She also is an intern for Mrs. Lori Kenny. Isabella plans on majoring in Biomedical Engineering in the future.

Nathan Ribando

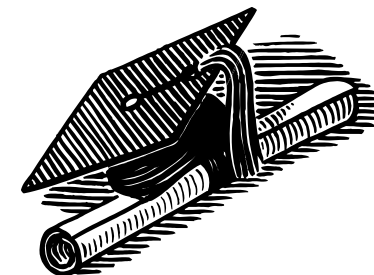

Alexa Rind

The key to Alexa's success has been knowing when to ask for help. Whether for a difficult assignment or an ambitious idea, she has learned the value of collaboration and teamwork. This, along with hard work, prioritizing, and always trying her absolute best, have contributed to her success. Alexa's bright spot through high school has been her amazing friends. She has also relished her time spent participating in all of her extracurricular activities, as well as her out of school activities. She has most enjoyed volunteering as this has allowed her to make a difference in the community. Highlights of Alexa's extracurricular involvement include President of the Key Club, Student Government PR Coordinator, and a student Congressional Lobbyist. Alexa loved being a part of Highstepping, Rowing, and four other Clubs and seven Honor Societies. Some noteworthy accomplishments include becoming an AP Scholar with Distinction, becoming biliterate, and earning an NHD Award as well as the President's Volunteer Service Award. Although Alexa has not yet decided on a college, she will be studying Political Science in the future.

Rosa Rivera

Gianna Prosseda

Gianna owes her success to hard work, accepting responsibility, listening, keeping it simple, and being honest with herself. The things she has enjoyed most about HHS are attending school events, joining clubs, and playing sports. Making new friends, getting to know people, and forming relationships with her teachers have been highlights for her. Noteworthy accomplishments include being a part of Natural Helpers, being PR Coordinator of the Class of 2021, being a Varsity Field Hockey Forward, all while maintaining High Honor Roll. Gianna plans to study Psychology at Colorado State University.

Samir Rathore

Samir credits time management as the key to his success. With his AP classes, Taekwondo training, and work he knew he had to remain organized and plan his time well in order to be successful. Samir has had many positive and memorable experiences at HHS. He really enjoyed participating in clubs and school events like Float Night, games and being part of the Wrestling team. Samir is a 3rd Degree Black Belt in Taekwondo and an Instructor in Self-Defense and Fighting. He was also a Varsity wrestler and competed for two years and placed 2nd in the League Tournament. He went to the County Tournament twice. Samir intends to study Aerospace Engineering in the future.

Gracia Renkewitz

Gracia attributes her success to her determination and work ethic. She believes it is not only important to complete her work but to go above and beyond. She has most enjoyed the connections she has formed and the community that was built with teachers and peers. Gracia has absolutely loved being a part of Naturals, overseen by Mr. Gilmore. She notes that this club has the most welcoming group of people where she has made the most meaningful connections. Gracia is also very proud of her first year NHD project, done with her friend and sister, which won a prize! Gracia plans to major in Psychology/Chemistry in the Fall.

Nina Drakulich

Nina owes her success to remaining on top of her workload. She has developed great time management skills, which have helped her to create a balance between schoolwork and studying, and enjoying her high school days and going out with friends. Having good interactions with her teachers has played an important part in that endeavor. Nina's most enjoyable aspect of high school has been learning valuable life lessons while being able to form life-long friendships and connections. Highlights of her extracurricular involvement have been playing Varsity tennis for three years and completing six years of NYSSMA for the piano. She is also a proud member of three Honor Societies. Nina will be studying Biology at Macaulay Honor College at City College of New York.

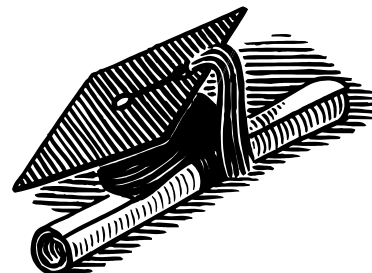

Jackson Dunn

Jackson owes his success to his work ethic. One aspect of high school that Jackson has enjoyed has been class wide discussions. Just having fun with his friends has made his journey more memorable. Highlights of Jackson's extracurricular involvement include playing at Lincoln Center and helping with Eagle Scout projects. Jackson intends to study Political Science at Loyola University Chicago.

Marina Durand

Katherine Eichenberger

Katherine's focus on mental health and having amazing teachers to work with her when she was struggling have been the keys to her success. She has most enjoyed the Choir program and Drama Club.

They have given her opportunities to grow as an artist and as a person. Long lasting bonds that were made with other students and faculty have made her time at HHS extra special. Noteworthy accomplishments include President of both Drama Club and Chamber Choir, All Eastern and two time All-State vocalist, secretary of Tri-M Music Honor Society and Vice President of the Gender and Sexualities Alliance. Katherine plans to major in Theatre in the future.

Jessica Erhardt

The keys to Jessica's success have been her time management skills and having goals. Her goals motivated her to apply herself to reach all that she is capable of. Jessica has loved building relationships with teachers who have made coming to school much more enjoyable. She was also grateful that she was able to choose classes that sparked her interests. Highlights of her extracurricular involvement include her involvement in the Key Club and fundraising for the community. She also enjoyed volunteering for the Bob Sweeney Foundation. Jessica will be majoring in Forensic Psychology at John Jay College in the Fall.

Matthew Fallon, Jr.

Matthew owes his success to his diligence and the ability to always keep up with his assignments and turn them in on a timely basis. He has enjoyed the wide variety of classes that HHS offers, especially Accounting, Marine Ecology and AP Computer Science. Matthew is a proud member of the Science and National Honor Societies. He plans to major in Game Design and Development at Rochester Institute of Technology.

Nathaniel Otto

The key to Nathaniel's success has been prioritizing learning over testing. He has most enjoyed connecting with new people and discovering where his interests lie. Finding his place in two towns is a highlight of his accomplishments. Although his major is undecided, Nathaniel will be studying at LIU Post in September.

Jorge Parada Cisneros

The keys to Jorge's success are taking things step-by-step and having amazing people around him every day. He has most enjoyed how Huntington High School is like a big family and everyone shows how much they care about each other. Having this support has made high school so enjoyable! The most important highlight of Jorge's extracurricular involvement is definitely being a part of the Marching Band; it is like his mini family. This was where he was able to learn who he truly is. Jorge plans to study Health in the future, but he is not sure which college he will be attending. One thing he knows for sure is that, wherever he chooses to go, he will make the best of it because that is who he is!

Gemma Pellegrini

Gemma's success begins with never losing sight of her end goal. This has helped her stay motivated and on track throughout high school. She has most enjoyed the little things that happen throughout the school day, such as talking with a favorite teacher or seeing friends in the hallway. Highlights of Gemma's extracurricular involvement have been the great people she has met in school clubs and the lifelong friendships and memories she will take with her. Gemma plans to study International Relations in the future.

Jeffrey Ochoa-Alvarez

Jeffrey owes his success and personal growth to remaining focused while keeping his mind open. He has also found happiness in comedy!
