The Huntington Booster Club, Inc, a non-profit agency, promotes and encourages extracurricular activities, particularly athletics, for the students of Huntington High School and Finley. The goals of the Booster Club are to provide financial support for annual scholarships, purchase equipment, summer sports programs and fulfilling individual grants. The Booster Club has donated over $100,000 in the past four years. This past year we helped fund the building of softball dugouts and purchased AEDs . We have given sports grants to various teams both at the High School and Finley including, softball, soccer, lacrosse, football, crew and track to name a few. In 2009 the Booster Club established the Devil's Den, a program designed to supply new and "gently used" equipment for children in need. This summer the Booster Club ran nine camps with an enrollment of 300 children The Booster Club also gives yearly awards to student athletes, who have demonstrated sportsmanship and exceptional work ethics throughout the year.
